next Monday, will undoubtedly interpose no game

"The Dancing Giri," says Manager Frohman, will illustrate the fact that lifenry Arthur Jones loves violent contrasts in his play. In them he thinks the strongest dramatic relief is to be found. In "The Dancing Girl" are two. There is in one scene a settlement of simple, plous Quakers, living humbir in an obscure island home. Another seene shows a swell London drawing-room in the full blast of an extravagant social revel. The contrast, great in itself, is said to be accentuated in every way.

Miss Fay Templeton, who still loves to be considered an artiess little puss, has not yet left town. She beamed from a box at the Standard Theatre, Monday night, chaperoned—for the proprieties must be observed—by Miss Perdita Hudspeth is the name of a young English actress formerly a member of the Rendals' company, and last season of the Court Theatre. London, who comes to this country by the Bothnia to try her dramatic fortunes here. It is understood that there will be no duty upon her name.

A very handsome woman in a brougham on Broadway driving up to one of the dramatic exchanges yesterday attracted some attention. She had the airs of a queen—a Haito queen—and was elaborately dressed. Her fingers were beringed in a most lavish manner. Was she a star? Was she some great public pet? Not a bit of it. She was a young woman who has one line to speak in "Fleurette" at the Standard Theatre.

The hot weather was very disastrous in its effects upon the "Wang" company. Delia Fox and Jeannette St. Honry were disabled, and during the last few days two chorus girls succumbed. A theatrical performance in an atmosphere charged with humidity is no joke -to the players, at any rate.

Sig. De Vivo speaks in glowing terms of his new star, Mme. Marozzi Diligenti, who is to appear in English, and who has been recommended by Salvini. She is twenty-five years old and speaks English, French, German, Dutch and Italian. Sig. le Vivo is not cruel enough to present her in all these languages, however. She is also a plantst and has studied singing under Marchesi. She has evidently a comprehensive repertoire, for she impersonates Marie Antoinette, Mary Stuart, Joan of Arc. La Tesca, Denise, Lady Macbeth and half a dozen other roles.

Rehearsals of "A Wolf's Wedding," the farce-comedy to be put forth by Frank Reynolds, are being held every day. There are new songs, new dances and new business.

When De Wolf Hopper leaves New York in October he will not appear here again until November, 1802. Hit season next year will begin in September, for he will rest all Sum-mer. From September to November he will remain "on the road."

Great Battle of the Trotters for the Charter Oak Stakes.

The Monmouth Park Association held in yesterday, and brings the meeting to a close Morris Park to-day, as also ends the meeting at Saratoga. To-morrow the Hudson ounty Jockey Club will close its gates until Winter racing begins on the hill-top trace.

Saturday the racing will begin on t picturesque track at sheepshead Bay, when the great Futurity will be decided, which is has a reputation to make; she no longer has a contract to break, for she is engaged to sing 000 to the winner. The array of crack twoin "La Cigale" at the Garden at a salary of year-olds that are eligible to start is some-$700 per week; as for her loving heart it has thing bewildering. There are 329 colts and tamed down, though gossips have been whispering about her alleged infatuation for Cari are doing their utmost to send their horses to strettmann, the Vienna tenor, who is also to the post in the pink of condition, so a great race will be run.

Casino last Thursday, and was to have sailed Mr. Dave Gideon thinks his chances with for Europe on the Saale last Saturday. She his game colt His Highness are excellent, for tore herself away from the bleeding and he has Jimmy McLaughlin to ride. Bergen lacerated Aronsons, but she did not sail. It will have the mount on Merry Monarch by choice, and if Monarch is any where near as good as is claimed Mr. Gideon surely has an odds-on chance.

The Messrs Morris say that if it will only rain and leave the track middy they will come pretty near pulling off the trick. Vestibule may sport Mr. Pierre Lorillard's colors but seems to be outclassed by the other shining lights entered. Dagonet has shown great speed and has lost races more through poor riding than poor running, and with a capable boy up will make them stretch their necks at the finish.

she is, however, wonderfully good-hearted, and, berhaps, she is willing at her own expense to advertise the Garden Theatre, where she is to appear. "La Cigale" opens in October. So Lillian has two clear months in which to work.

Where is Lillian, however? This is not asked in any expectation of an accurate answer. Would that Herr Streitmann had also disappeared from the city? The smiling Carl, it must be said, any the first performance of "Indigo" at the Casino Tuesday night, after Lillian's departure, and he was the centre of a group of animated damsels. This is a very provoking fact, but it cannot be everiooked. The question, therefore, which has not been sat upon, arises once more with brutai elasticity: Where is Lillian?

The racing at Jerome yesterday was highly interesting, and the 4,000 or 5,000 people who made the journey there enjoyed a good day's sport, which wound up with a steeple-chase race, which is always exciting and attracts many who would not go otherwise. For a wonder, there was not a tail throughout the race. The races broke even, three favorites, and three outsiders winning.

Racing will begin at Buffalo Saturday un-der the new management. Quite a number of horses have been shipped there, and the outlook is good for a successful meeting.

There was a genuine surprise at Saratoga yesterday when Prettiwit at 20 to 1 won the fifth race by half a length from Vosburg.

Seven trotters fought eight heats for the Charter Oak $10,000 Stakes at Hartford yesterday without a winner, leaving three of them tied with two heats to their credit, and another with one. Little Albert, who got two heats, was very lame after the racing, and it was doubtful whether he could start again to-day.

Mr. McCormick will ship his stable of horses to Buffalo, including Vocalite, who was not injured as badly at Guttenburg as was at first supposed.

The great centre for the sporting fraternity of Bergen County, N. J., a few years ago was the Hobokus race track. It was one of the best hait-mile tracks in the State and every Autumn the scene of the county fair, but with the failure of the Agricultural Society became totally neglected. The judges stand is now being rebuilt, also an immense grand stand for visitors, the track and grounds have been around it. The track and grounds have been leased by the Ridgewood Driving Association. The ground is centrally located in the county, and is connected by good roads, with railroad facilities in close proximity. The Ciub will inaugurate their season on Labor Day.

White River Junction, Aug. 27.—Rain If Snapper Garrison is reinstated in time to ride in the Faturity he will probably pilot Capt. Brown's Lamplighter. Garrison's friends are circulating a petition to the Board of Control to have him reinstated. It is said that Mr. M. F. Dwyer has signed the petition. Garrison has been reducing for the last two weeks, and could now ride at about 120 pounds. was falling heavily at 8.30 o'clock this morning when President Harrison's special train started from the Boston and Maine station at St. Johnsbury for Rutland. About five hundred people cheered the President on his denarture.

Dr. Hasbrouck covered five furiongs in the fast time of 1.01 at Saratoga. The time for the half was 0.49%.

"Hilly" Lakeland's good colt Victory has broken down. He was being specially prepared for the Futurity, and looked to have a fine chance for the rich stakes. Lakeland bought him at the Beimont sale last Whiter, and has won him out in stakes. He beat His Highness at Sheepshead Bay and was a colf of great courage and speed. It is feared that his injuries are permanent.
